COST

Sales are usually looked upon with a degree of allowance by the general public. But we think the people of Dodge City and vicinity feel that we do as we advertise.

Our Cost

Mark is hung up in plain sight and you can tell the cost of our goods as well as we can.

We still have some great bargains left in Dry Goods, Clothing, Notions, etc.

Yours truly,
R. M. Wright & Co.

—Well, we got back.

—J. C. Murphy, of Ingalls, was a caller Friday.

—D. M. Frost spent Sunday and Monday at home.

—Editor Stewart, of Spearville, was a caller Monday.

—J. T. Whitelaw visited Larned on business Thursday.

—M. W. Sutton was at Garden City on legal business Friday.

—The Methodist church is again favored with a good choir.

—J. W. Guynn, of Ingalls, Sundayed with friends in this city.

—C. W. Averill and J. B. Waring were at Ashland during the week.

—Oh no! Dodge City isn't putting on airs. Just a little style, that's all.

—We are told that the college building is to be fully completed this week.

—Mr. Fred Hobbs, of Kinsley, was a welcome caller at our office this week.

—The usual Christmas tree will be had at the various churches Christmas eve.

—We made the trip around the world last night and had a pretty good time.

—A little less whistle, Mr. Electric Light man, would suit the public just as well.

—ROCK ISLAND ROUTE.—Dodge City, change cars for Denver and the Pacific coast."

—Read the business locals and advertisements this week for bargains in holiday goods.

—Editor A. K. Stouffer and bride, of Arkalon, Kas., stopped at the Delmonico over Sunday.

—The 20th of the month is close at hand, and as a result the county treasury is filling up.

—The fast mail train was a little slow Sunday, arriving at this place about three hours late.

—The Presbyterian Sabbath school will give a cantata entitled "Santa Claus," at the church, Christmas Eve.

—A cash has opened a second hand store in the Marsh block, corner of Chestnut street and Third avenue.

—The St. Louis and San Francisco trains will run into the union depot in Dodge City about January 1st, 1890.

—Mr. L. K. Soper has returned home from his sad journey to New York, whence he accompanied the remains of his wife.

—Ike Rothenberg, of Leavenworth, was in the city several days the past week selling goods, and entertaining the boys at "high five."

—We had the pleasure last Thursday of attending a very enjoyable entertainment at Kinsley, given by the ladies of the Congregational church.

—The Ford County Bible Society have a few bibles for sale. If you want to buy anything in this line for a present call at E. R. Garland's and see them.

—D. H. Atkins, the photographer, has moved his outfit to Dodge City for the winter. He expects to return again in the spring.—Jetmore Sittings.

—As bridge builders, the Rock Island force are world beaters. They put a railroad bridge across the Arkansas river at this place in just one week.

—A lovely sight may be seen in J. F. Frank's front door yard, where a variety of pansies are in bloom. Florida and California, please take a back seat.

—The closing exercises of the present term of the college will be held Friday evening in the Presbyterian church. The public is cordially invited to the entertainment.

—The Rock Island is soon to have a continuous mail service from Chicago to Dodge City, which will give us the eastern mail about three hours in advance of other routes.

—The Kansas City Journal and Globe each pay the railroad company one dollar a mile for every mile made by the fast mail train. This service comes high but these papers must have it.

—Mr. N. G. Healey, formerly of Boston, is a member of the Exchange and will henceforth take an active part at the daily sessions. Investors will do well to call and see him, at room 4, Lewis block, 1,646 Arapahoe street.—Denver Mining Exchange.

—The irrepressible Presiding Elder of the Garden City district, Rev. A. P. George, was present at the Larned district conference at McPherson and made an excellent representation of The Dodge City School of Theology, of which he is the honored and popular president.—Western Methodist.

P. H. Young, the jeweler, has just received a large stock of Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silver Ware for the holiday trade. Don't fail to call and examine his stock before making your holiday purchases. 7-9

—G. R. Cochran, of Wilburn, was in town Monday, and informs us that he is feeding a bunch of steers on corn of his own raising. A few years ago Ford county farmers could not make this grand boast.

—Rev. S. E. Busser, of Topeka, will deliver the oration at the masonic installation in this city on the 27th inst. Rev. Busser is pastor of the Congregational church at Topeka and ranks among the ablest speakers of the west.

—The grading being done on Third avenue is all in good place, but it is not near so important as the dangerous place on Second avenue in the vicinity of the old McIntyre lumber yard. It would be well to give the latter matter immediate attention.

—The railroad companies in making a rate of one fare for the round trip during the holidays are not only accommodating the traveling public, but are doing that which will yield themselves a greater revenue. Keeping passenger fares up to the highest notch does not enrich the company.

—The first through passenger train over the Rock Island to the Pacific coast left Chicago Sunday night, coming via St. Joseph, Missouri, to Dodge City, where the Santa Fe road took charge of the train. At Albuquerque, New Mexico, a transfer is made to the Atlantic & Pacific, which road carries the train to the coast, making a trip from Chicago to San Francisco without a change of cars.

—THE BANQUET to be given by the Masonic fraternity at the conclusion of the St. Bernard installation ceremonies December 27th, will be spread at the Delmonico Hotel, under the direct charge of Boniface Heinz. To this feast all visiting Masons, in good standing, and their ladies are to be the welcome guests of St. Bernard Lodge. By "visiting Masons" is meant those from our neighboring lodges.

—The commissioners of the state soldiers' home located at Fort Dodge, five miles east of the city, did the handsome thing in the appointment of Captain D. L. Sweeney as commander of that institution. We predict that Mr. Sweeney will prove the right man in the right place. He is deserving of this recognition as an old soldier in the late war and a leading representative of the G. A. R. of which organization he is an active member and is at this time honored with the office of commander of Lewis Post of this city. The GLOBE-REPUBLICAN is pleased to see him thus recognized.

—The officers of the Omaha, Dodge City & Southern railroad are very much encouraged at present over the prospect of the ultimate success of their road. Things have been a little slow in shaping up, but it is believed that matters are about to be brought to a close, which will secure to our people this much talked of thoroughfare. With the building of the above line will start the Dodge City, Montezuma & Trinidad, which is already twenty-eight miles southwest of us and the officers of it are anxious to extend it into the coal fields of Trinidad, Colorado.

—The sorrel mare belonging to J. W. Gilbert indulged in a lively runaway Sunday morning. She was hitched to the phaeton, which was occupied by Mrs. Gilbert and the coachman, and in coming down the hill in the west part of town took fright at something and became unmanageable. At the foot of the hill the coachman succeeded in making a sharp turn which threw the mare, thus bringing her to a halt. It was a very narrow escape, and only the coolness of the occupants of the carriage averted what might have otherwise proved a disastrous runaway. The buggy shafts were demolished, being the only damage done.

"Masonic Manhood."

Rev. S. E. Busser, of Topeka, Grand Orator of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Kansas, will deliver a lecture on the above subject in the Masonic hall at the St. Bernard installation ceremonies, on the evening of St. John's Day, Dec. 27th. All are invited.

Piano Recital.

Another excellent musical entertainment was the first pupil's recital given by Miss Minnie Sheldon at the Phenix rooms Friday evening, which was greeted by a large and very appreciative audience.

The piano numbers given by the pupils were rendered in a perfect manner, and their execution gave evidence of very careful training and proved beyond a doubt the ability of their teacher.

The numbers marked with an * were given by talent who assisted Miss Sheldon, and all were given in such a manner as to elicit enthusiasm, especially the numbers by Miss Whitelaw, Mrs. Gilbert, and Mrs. Churchill. It is quite impossible to particularize in detail when each successive number rivaled the preceding one in artistic excellence,—and for the better reason that we are so often called upon to criticize almost the same talent at each musicale,—but a word of praise is justly due to the piano solo which was performed by Miss Minnie Sheldon in a noble manner and with true artistic feeling. This selection was a peculiarly difficult one, and that it was fully appreciated was shown by the hearty recall. We can best express ourselves in this quotation:

"Music resembles poetry; in each Are nameless graces, which no methods teach, And which a master hand alone can reach."

Miss Sheldon also had the assistance of Mr. C. M. Beeson, violinist, and Mr. E. F. Sheldon, cornetist, who, together with herself as accompanist, gave the opening and closing overtures.

The programme is worthy of reproduction here, and is as follows:

The climax of brutality in Siberian crimes seems to have been reached in the recent wholesale slaughter of exiles for some trivial disobedience to government rules. Such horrors furnish the key to nihilism and dynamite.
